REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Missouri Conference, under the leadership of Dr. E. B. Craighead, has correlated with Central College a number of her schools, including Howard-Payne College. In view of the action of our Conference at its last session with regard to Howard-Payne and Central, and inasmuch as the resolutions of the Missouri Conference continue Howard-Payne as the property of that Conference alone, therefore,

Resolved, That we most heartily approve the action of the Missouri Conference, and congratulate her upon the speedy and happy consummation of this magnificent work.

2. That questions relating to the legality and morality of the correlation are concerning that Conference alone, and we deem it competent to settle all such questions.

Appreciating the fact that the enlarging responsibilities of the Board of Curators of Central College, demand an increase in the number of curators, and recognizing the generosity of the Missouri Conference in its proposal that its proportion of curators of Central College be augmented from other sections of the state, and believing that the suggestion of the St. Louis Conference, that the curators be equally divided between the three Conferences in Missouri to be wise, we therefore express our approval of both measures proposed, and urge the present Board of Curators, at its next meeting, to take steps toward having the charter of Central College amended in such manner that this readjustment of the number of curators may be accomplished by the Annual Conference of 1900.

We further express our hearty appreciation of the progress Dr. Craighead has made in the work of systematizing our educational institutions, and realizing the need of time and the hearty support of the board in order to the successful completion of this work, we urge the co-operation of the board with him in the present policy and earnestly request his re-election for a term of not less than three years at the next session of the board.

TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT.

The most important work now before the church is the Twentieth Century movement. As we face the new century, we are more and more impressed with the possibilities it carries with it. The time is now far spent, and if we carry this work to a successful issue, we must begin at once and concentrate all our forces upon the speedy execution of what has been already auspiciously begun.

The position of the presiding elder is a very responsible one in his relation to this movement. He can so organize his district as to speedily concentrate the work, or, by indifference to it, he can defeat the will and purpose of the General Conference, as far as his district is concerned. We, therefore, call the attention of this Conference to the following suggestions, which come from the General Board of Education, and recommend their adoption:

1. Organize each district at the beginning of the year, so that this work shall be forced into each pastoral charge and brought to the attention of every member of the church.

2. See that there is appointed in each pastoral charge a Twentieth Century Committee, consisting of one member for every fifty members of the church, of which the pastor shall be chairman. Let this committee, in co-operation with the pastors, push the movement with all possible vigor.

3. An early and persistent effort should be made to put the New Century Education into every family in our church.

4. Let the pastors supply the committee with subscription cards, leaflets, etc., which will be furnished by the General Board.

5. Each pastor is requested to report monthly as to the progress of the work to the Conference secretary of education.

It is further suggested by the General Board, that for the next year, all the assessments for education be merged into one general claim and counted in as a part of the Twentieth Century collection. This will prevent confusion and will still be in perfect harmony with the spirit of the movement.

C. M. BISHOP. Chairman.

CENTRAL COLLEGE.

We are gratified to learn that the enrollment last year in Central College was the largest in the history of that institution; and that the number of students reported at the end of the first week, this year, is larger than any previous first week. We congratulate the Board of that institution upon the satisfactory addition of Centenary Institute, Woodson Institute, Northwest Missouri College and Howard-Payne College, to our long contemplated system of correlated schools. We regret to learn, however, that there is still a deficiency in the income of the institution, through a diminution in the amount of interest from the endowment. It is this deficiency that impels the Board of Central College to ask for an assessment of $1000 upon our Conference. We heartily approve the plan of co-education for Central College, and its correlated academies, and hope that President Craighead will be able to complete the work so well begun. We express our thanks to Bros. Cupples and Hoagland for their munificent gifts during the past year, and we trust that in connection with our Twentieth Century campaign the claims of Central College will be pressed upon the hearts and consciences of our people.

CENTRAL FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are glad to learn that Central Female College last June closed one of the most successful year's work in the history of the institution. In the boarding department there were close to a hundred pupils, and in addition to this, there was a good local patronage. The institution has never had a better opening than this year, having already enrolled nearly as many pupils in the boarding department as last year. President Williams has shown himself peculiarly fitted for his responsible position, and has associated with him a thoroughly competent faculty.

The time is now come when the church in Missouri must make more ample provisions for this school, in order to meet the demands for the higher education of the young women of our church. Central Female College has property valued at $75,000, and no endowment worthy the name, with facilities for the accommodation of not more than 100 boarding pupils. There is the same need for cutting down the expenses for young women as for young men, and there is the same demand for better facilities and more thorough instruction. Therefore, we recommend first: That we concur in the recommendation of the Board of Curators, that $50,000 be raised for a new chapel and other facilities, and $100,000 for endowment; and, second, that we concur in the action of the Missouri and St. Louis Conferences in the appointment of President Z. M. Williams as financial agent, and invite him to our charges and accord him a hearty co-operation.

ORIEN E. VIVIAN,

For Board.

SCARRITT COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

We note with pleasure the evidences of prosperity shown in the continued success of Scarritt Collegiate Institute. The solid basis of the present condition promises still greater advancement for the future. The college has a good faculty, able to give thorough instruction in the branches taught. As to the equipment in the scientific department in the way of apparatus, your Board of Education were not informed by the chairman of the Board of Curators. The opening this year was in no way behind other years, but in advance of many; there being now enrolled more than 100 pupils. We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. C. Hill as president, Rev. F. M. Sanger as Professor, and Rev. J. B. Ellis and J. B. Charles as curators of this institution.

A. H. BARNES,
For Board.

MORRISVILLE COLLEGE.

We have heard, with much gratification, the report of the Board of Curators of Morrisville College. It closed last June one of the best years in the history of the institution, the enrollment having been larger than ever before. The opening this year is the best since its organization, having enrolled in the literary department alone 101, and the outlook for the school was never so good as at present. There is now in process of construction a splendid new college building, which will cost $15,000 to $20,000. It will be, when completed, three stories high, 85 feet by 84 feet, stone foundation, pressed brick, heated by steam, and will be ready for occupancy by January 1, 1900. The people of Morrisville and vicinity have testified their loyalty to Methodism and Twentieth Century educational movement by contributing over $8,000, to the construction of this new building, which will be an honor to the church in Southwest Missouri; and in this connection we urge the earnest prayers and hearty co-operation in behalf of this school. The old college building will be re-modeled and converted into a dormitory for the use of the young men attending school, thereby lessening the expense by furnishing cheaper board. We congratulate the Board of Curators in having secured the services of President J. J. Pritchett, who, by his untiring energy and eminent ability, has shown himself peculiarly adapted in building up the college, and we feel that under him and his able faculty the school is in safe hands. We recommend President Pritchett to the preachers of the conference and invite him into the several charges in behalf of education. We ask the appointment of the following members of the Board of Curators for a term of three years: J. G.

Simpson, C. J. Wilkins, T. M. Cobb, A. E. Mitchell, O. C. Jackson.

ORIEN E. VIVIAN,

For Board.

COTTEY COLLEGE.

We are greatly pleased to hear of the remarkable prosperity of Cottey College under the continued wise management of Mrs. V. A. C. Stockard, the founder of the institution. The erection of the new south wing of the college building completes the original design with which Mrs. Stockard began her work of erection there, fifteen years ago; and gives adequate room for carrying on the work of a first class college for young women.

We are gratified to learn of the increased attendance upon all the principal departments of the college, and of the provision made for larger efficiency, if possible, in all the departments.

We most heartily recommend this college as doing the full work of a church school and as being a church school in every sense except that we have no property rights in it, and therefore, also, no financial responsibility for it.

We recommend that the relation of this college to the church be continued; and also that the following Advisory Board be appointed, viz :

JOSEPH KING,

Presiding Elder Nevada District.

P. C., Centenary Church, Nevada.

C. H. BRIGGS.

W. M. PROTTSMAN.

W. T. McCLURE.

J. B. LATIMER.

JNO. S. CLACK.

DR. I. W. AMMERMAN.

DR. G. W. PETTY.

And we recommend that the usual visiting committee be appointed.

Respectfully Submitted,

C. M. BISHOP.

For Board.

PAINE AND LANE INSTITUTES.

We rejoice in the large enrollment—546—for the past year in Paine and Lane Institutes, and thank God for what he is doing for our colored brethren through these schools. We commend the wise and faithful efforts of Bro. Sanders and Dr. Walker, their presidents.

Every remaining subscription should be collected speedily on the Haygood Memorial Hall, and this shining monument to the liberality of Southern Methodism should begin the new year out of debt. This conference cannot afford to raise less than the $600 asked of us for Paine and Lane. We trust Bishop Lane's personal letter to this body, will meet a hearty response in a worthy contribution.

JNO. S. JENKINS,
For Board.

YOUR BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Has endeavored to give careful consideration to all matters within our province and in addition to the other reports, we recommend the following :

1. That an assessment, for educational purposes, of $3,000 be made upon this conference: $1,000 to go to Central College, $600 to go to Paine and Lane Institutes, $228 to go to the General Board, $172 to go to Conference Board and $1,000 to be divided equally between Central Female College, Morrisville College, and Scarritt Collegiate Institute—the last amount to be applied as the Curators in each case may direct.
2. That you re-elect W. C. Scarritt curator of Central College.
3. That this conference favor the early establishment of a large General Board of Curators, by the three conferences for all our church schools in this state.
4. That you elect the following members of the Board: S. H. Werlein in place of F. R. Hill; J. F. Groves in place of C. M. Hawkins; T. W. Alton in place of C. C. Woods, resigned.
5. That the presiding bishop appoint C. M. Bishop conference secretary for the ensuing year.

JNO. S. JENKINS.
Secretary pro tem.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We recommend that the presiding bishop appoint the Rev. A. H. Godbey to the principalship of Central Academy at Fayette, Mo., the Rev. Charles Franklin as a student at Vanderbilt University, and the Rev. S. W. Hayne as a student at Central College.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals make the following report:

THE NASHVILLE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Christian Advocate, published at Nashville, Tenn., is a paper of great merit, and should have a much larger circulation. It represents the whole church and has first claim upon our patronage. A little more attention from our pastors and church officials would greatly increase its circulation and thereby enlarge the profits of the Publishing House. We urge that this attention be given.

METHODIST REVIEW.

We are gratified by the large circulation of the Methodist Review, and by the distinguished position it takes among other publications of a like character. We have great reason to be proud of the work done by our Book Editor, Dr. J. J. Tigert, both at home and abroad. The Review readily challenges comparison and criticism. We commend the enterprise to the whole church, and bespeak a yet stronger support in the Southwest Missouri Conference.

EPWORTH ERA.

We note with interest and satisfaction the prosperity of the Epworth Era under the efficient editorship of Dr. H. M. Du Bose, and would encourage its circulation in all our leagues.

PUBLISHING HOUSE.

The results of the year's business of the Publishing House show a gain of $40,144.19, in its capital stock, representing a profit of something over 9 per cent on the actual business transacted, or a gain of a little over 4 per cent on the entire capital stock of the House. The expenses have been somewhat increased for the present by the establishment of a branch house in Dallas, Texas, but the management express the hope, and are confident in the belief, that this auxiliary will not only prove self-supporting but will, in the near future, become a source of profit to the parent house. The financial exhibit shown is not sufficient in detail to defy criticism or to call for complimentary notice. A slight error in the balance sheet seems to have been either clerical or typographical. We recommend that the management favor the conferences in the future by furnishing a balance sheet of assets and liabilities, giving in all cases the market value of stocks and bonds held by the Publishing House.

THE REVIEW OF MISSIONS.

The Review of Missions, edited by our missionary secretaries, Drs. Lamberth and Pritchett, is of the highest character; each number is full of interesting matter which is of great importance to the whole church. The subscription price is so low, that in our judgment every family in the church ought to take it. We would impress upon our preachers, and all lovers of the Master, the great importance of aiding in its circulation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE.

We believe our Sunday School literature to be as good as any published in our country, and most heartily recommend the publications of our own House in preference to those of any other.

E. K. WOLFE,

Secretary.

A. H. GODBEY.

ST. LOUIS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

(Minority report adopted in place of majority report by a vote of 81 to 54.)

We recognize the St. Louis Christian Advocate as the principal medium through which the church news of the conference is conveyed.

We recommend the St. Louis Christian Advocate as the organ of this conference, and feel greatly pleased to learn of the connection of our talented brother, C. C. Woods, of this conference, with the paper as assistant editor, and bespeak for the Advocate, a still larger field of usefulness, owing to his connection with it. The several departments devoted to the Sunday School, Epworth League, and Children's Corner, are well conducted and speak for themselves. We fully appreciate the efforts of the management to secure the able contributors whose articles appear from time to time in the literary department, and congratulate the paper in its success in this direction.

This conference herein expresses its pleasure in the acceptance of the liberal donation from Dr. Palmore, of $100 to the joint board for the benefit of our conference claimants. We are glad to note the continued prosperity of the Advocate and urge our brethren to aid in every way possible in the increase of its circulation.

C. B. RHODES and others.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your board beg leave to report that they have carefully considered the matters committed to them and submit the following :

We commend the able work of Dr. James Atkins in bringing our Sunday School literature up to its present high standard of excellence. We would respectfully request the General Sunday School Board to prepare a Sunday School minute and roll book for general use, to be presented to the General Conference for adoption. We ask that you direct the Presiding Elders to give at least one full half day session of the District Conference to the Sunday School work, and, in pursuance of the disciplinary requirements, to furnish a programme in advance for the session, in which all phases of Sunday School work shall receive adequate consideration. We desire to call the attention of the preachers to the mandatory provisions of the discipline requiring that "every Sunday School be organized into a missionary society auxiliary to the Board of Missions." We urge that every preacher take upon himself the responsibility of seeing that Childrens' Day is properly observed, and that the collection then taken be conscientiously forwarded as required in the discipline. We call special attention to this as there has been marked negligence in this matter the last year. We ask the appointment of Perry Long, C. W.

Scarritt, R. T. Russell and F. E. Gordon as delegates to the State Sunday School Association. The financial statement of the treasurer, together with the list of appropriations for the past year, is as follows:

COMMITTEE—ANNUAL CONFERENCE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We, your committee, appointed at the last conference to effect the organization of an Annual Conference Epworth League, report. In response to the call of the chairman, the Rev. C. M. Bishop, D. D., the committee met at Pertle Springs, Mo., June 16, 1899, and effected a conference organization. A district chairman, for each district in the conference, was appointed. It was decided to hold a meeting at Pertle Springs during the summer of 1900. A programme committee was appointed : C. M. Bishop, chairman ; W. C. Hill, secretary.

The Rev. W. C. Hill having resigned the secretaryship, the committee asks that Chas. W. Scarritt be appointed to fill the place. We also ask that the names of the officers of the Annual Epworth League conference appear in the minutes, as follows : President, C. M. Bishop ; vice-presidents, A. H. Barnes, J. E. McDonald, E. P. Ryland ; secretary, Chas. W. Scarritt.

EPWORTH LEAGUE COMMITTEE.

We, the Epworth League committee, report :

WHEREAS, the Epworth Era is the general organ of the Epworth League of our church, and is the only paper published by our church exclusively for young men and women, and is a most excellent paper and worthy of the widest circulation, therefore,

Resolved, that we urge our preachers and Epworth League presidents to increase their efforts toward putting the Era into the hands of all our young people. We recommend that the leagues in the respective charges be urged to aid the preachers in raising their full missionary assessments for the ensuing year. Also, that the preachers urge, especially, upon our leaguers the importance of attending our next annual Epworth league conference, at Pertle Springs, Mo.

E. P. RYLAND,
Chairman.

A. B. DAVIDSON,
Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Kansas City District:—Journal is a model of neatness.

Lexington District:—Fairly well kept. No criticism.

Clinton District:—Should be kept with more care. Some blots. Words incorrectly spelled; punctuation not very good.

Nevada District:—No criticism.

Lebanon District:—Journal is not indexed, nor subject matter classified. The roll of membership is lacking; punctuation very much disregarded Neosho District:—Very neat. No criticism.

Springfield District:—Very good. Some errors in spelling proper names, and in using the word "adopting" instead of "approving" the minutes.

Boonville District:—About the only blemish is that about one-third of a page of the record was written incorrectly and then stricken out.

J. R. HEDGES, Chairman.

W. G. BEASLEY, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, submit the following:

As defenders of the truth of the gospel of the Son of God, we declare our opposition to the liquor traffic, and especially to the open saloon. We recommend that our preachers and people read our book of discipline, and practice what is therein enjoined concerning temperance.

WHEREAS, We have met the representatives of the American Anti-Saloon League, who ask our co-operation with it in meeting organized iniquity with organized righteousness; therefore,

Resolved, That we adopt its motto: "The Saloon Must Go!" And that we encourage the organization of local leagues wherever necessary. We recommend that Dr. S. H. Werlien and Harry Crum be elected to attend the next annual convention to be held in Chicago.

BEN. V. ALTON, Chairman.

A. NOBLE JAMES, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

We, your Committee on Bible Cause, report that there is a gradual decrease in our support of this great interest; having raised $137.94, as against $143.31 in '98, and as against $193.07 in '97. We deplore the tendency, and exhort the preachers to bring this cause before their people on its own merits, and to make a faithful effort to bring up a good report from each charge in the conference next year.

W. M. RADER,
For Committee.

METHODIST BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.

During the year the Rev. M. M. Pugh, D. D., one of the original members, and for many years the vice president of the Board of Directors of the Methodist Benevolent Association, passed away from the toils and cares of this earth life to the land of the blessed at God's right hand. The minutes show that for 22 years Dr. Pugh was in attendance on all the meetings of the Association, and, we know, he was ever ready to do all he could to further this important interest of the church. He was a wise and safe counselor in the administration of the affairs of this association.

On the nomination of the board, the conference elected the Rev. S. J. Brown to fill the vacancy in the Board of Directors caused by the death of Dr. Pugh.

The permanent fund of this association remains the same amount as last year: $13,520.

Interest collected:

On Permanent Fund loaned.....	$804 00
From Coupon Bonds.....	156 40
Total	$960 40

Which amount has been paid the Joint Board of Finance.

Officers for the ensuing year: Wm. C. Scarritt, president; Frank S. Groves, treasurer; W. B. McFarland, vice-president; J. M. Boon, secretary. Other members of the board: Gov. Lon V. Stephens, Judge Jno. A. Rich, Rev. S. J. Brown.

J. M. BOON,
Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

REV. M. M. PUGH.

The Rev. Manson M. Pugh, D. D., was born in Buncombe county, N. C., September 26th, 1830. When quite young his parents moved to Georgia, where he grew to manhood. After some time he went to Arkansas. Providence seems to have directed his steps. He knew not where he journeyed. He heard the sound of music and the voice of prayer, he turned aside, and with deep compunction of spirit, he sought the Lord and there saw the light. He then and there united with the M. E. Church. He remained steadfast in the faith, giving glory to God. Our brother was licensed to preach September 10, 1853, and was admitted on trial by the Missouri and Arkansas Conference of the M. E. Church. Was ordained deacon by Bishop Morris in 1855, and ordained elder by Bishop Simpson in 1857. He traveled in the M. E. Church in Kansas and Arkansas until 1859, part of the time he was presiding elder. In 1860 he became a member of the M. E. Church, South, and was admitted to membership in the St. Louis Conference. His first appointment was to Columbus Circuit. During the war he served the church, as best he could, in Kansas City, Independence, Richmond and elsewhere. His subsequent fields of labor were: Independence Station, one year; Boonville District, four years; Lee's Summit Circuit, two years; Lexington District, six years; Lexington Station, one; Central Female College agent, two years; Kansas City District, three; Sedalia Station, one; Pilot Grove Circuit, two years; Campbell Street (Springfield), one; Nevada District, four; Neosho Station, one, and Waverly Station, one. While at Waverly his health gave way, and he was placed on the roll of honor in 1897. He was a preacher nearly forty-six years, and effective nearly forty-four. Brother Pugh was married to Miss Agnes Stewart, September 9th, 1859. Five children were born to them. Two sons and one daughter are living, the others having passed away. Brother Pugh was a quiet, Christian gentleman. He had no disputes with any one. His study, and work in general, occupied his time. He was a student, always accumulating wisdom from whatever direction it might be found. He was a fine sermonizer, a good theologian and at times an eloquent preacher. He never eulogized himself directly or indirectly, neither was he in the habit of speaking lightly of others. He seemed always to feel that he had a work to do, and was never satisfied until that work was done. He aimed to avoid giving offense to all classes of persons. His promises were sacred. Rather than to go in debt, when he was unable to pay, he would endure the winter's storms and the snowy blasts even at the risk of his health. He was a man of strong faith and courage, where duty pointed he went. He had the courage of a martyr. During his pastorate in Kansas City his faith and courage were tried more than once. Had he not acted with great prudence his life might have been forfeited. That wisdom that cometh from above characterized his actions at all times. He was honored by his brethren. Twenty years he was presiding elder, and eight years a member of the General Board of Missions.

His end was peace.

W. B. McFARLAND.

JAMES FRANKLIN HOGAN.

James Franklin Hogan, son of William and Mary Rudolf Hogan, was born in Montgomery county, Tenn., January 5, 1833, and died in Windsor, Mo., August 7, 1899. While he was quite young his parents died.

At the age of 22 he came to Missouri, and not long after was married near Springfield, to Miss Elizabeth Powell.

He was received into the church by Rev. J. L. Burchard and appointed class leader. Soon afterward he was elected steward. In 1861 he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Buffalo Circuit. T. W. Mitchell, P. E., and W. D. Stewart, P. C.

In 1866 he was admitted on trial by the St. Louis Conference and sent to the California Circuit, which he had traveled the year before as a supply. His classmates were L. P. Siceleoff, T. M. Cobb, and J. D. Wood, all of whom still live.

His subsequent fields of labor were: Independence Circuit, Neosho Circuit, Versailles, Nevada, Sedalia, Cambridge, Arrow Rock, Lebanon District, Warsaw Circuit, Montrose Circuit, Clinton District, Clinton Circuit, Lebanon Station, Green Ridge Circuit, Versailles Station, Windsor Circuit, Appleton City, and finished his work on Montrose Circuit, the third Sunday in August, 1898, there and then closing 32 years of effective work. One year of rest in the superannuated relation completed his preparation for nobler service in his Master's employ.

Brother Hogan was a good expository preacher and a faithful pastor; one of the very best in the conference. The people—all the people—everywhere he went loved him and he led, by his gentle, persuasive, loving way, many hundreds of souls to the Savior, built up believers in the faith, and advanced the kingdom of our Lord in the world.

He approached the end of life's journey gradually. Halted feebly to the tomb, but with full assurance that he should soon cross over to the other shore.

As he could no longer preach he was anxious to depart and be with his Lord.

He made all necessary arrangements about his funeral and spoke of death as a journey to a better country.

The people of Windsor, among whom he had lived twenty years, without a dissenting voice, say he has gone to Heaven.

He fought a good fight, kept the faith, has finished his course and gone to receive his crown, all bespangled with jewels made up of the many he turned to righteousness.

W. S. WOODARD.

THOMAS J. STRINGFIELD.

Thomas J. Stringfield was born in Brown county, Ill., July 4, 1831, and born again and joined the North Methodist church, August, 1849, at Spring Camp ground, in the same state.

He was licensed to preach in May, 1870, at Lee's Summit, Mo., by the Quarterly Conference of Independence Circuit. J. A. Murphy, P. E., and J. F. Hogan, P. C. In September following he joined the St. Louis Conference at Boonville, and was appointed to Fredricktown Circuit. In this conference he served the following charges: Grand Pass, Montevallo, Carthage, Golden City, Pineville, Newtonia, Cassville, Bloom Garden, Chamois, Osceola, Cross Timbers, and Stockton circuits.

Three years he was supernumerary, was superannuated in 1891, since which he has been continued in that relation.

He was ordained deacon in 1873, and elder in 1879.

Brother Stringfield was twice married. First to Miss Mary J. Rust, September, 29, 1863, and last to Miss Missouri M. Fielder, March 25, 1874.

Our now sainted brother was of noble lineage, being a nephew of Thomas Stringfield, who was one of the early editors of the Nashville Advocate, a man of great force of character.

Brother Stringfield was an extremely timid, shrinking, modest man, but a true follower of the lowly Nazarine, and as guileless as a child. He was a good man, and that means a great deal.

The people loved him for his moral worth and for his work's sake. He was a living epistle of the Lord Jesus, read of all men.

He approached life's goal gradually but joyfully. As his outer man grew weaker, the inner man grew stronger and he exulted in prospect of his final reward.

With a faint hope of benefit he decided, last July, to go to the mountains for his health. On bidding his loved ones good bye, he said: "I am going to Montana if I do not get to Heaven before I get there."

He reached his earthly Pishgah, and after "viewing the landscape o'er," in August, he "wrapped the drapery of his mantle about him and laid him down to pleasant dreaming."

From the mountain top he "slipped away, but we know where to find him."

W. S. WOODARD.

J. K. MATTHEWS.

J. K. Matthews was born in Radcliffe, Lancashire, England, in 1851, and died in the parsonage, in Niangua, Mo., January 8, 1899.

When 16 years old he came to America and first lived in Pennsylvania, where he was converted and joined the Methodist church. Afterwards went to Indiana where he was licensed to exhort, and in 1881 was married to Miss Josie Campbell.

He and his wife came to Missouri in 1882, where he was licensed to preach, and in October, 1882, was admitted on trial in the St. Louis Conference. Was received into full connection and ordained deacon in 1884, and elder in 1886.

He gave the church in that conference sixteen years of faithful, effective work, and one year ago was transferred to this. As soon as he could reach his field of labor he began his work with fervid zeal which soon ultimated in glorious success. In about three months he had held two successful revivals in which there were fifty-six conversions.

His last meeting closed January 2, and he went home "on the mountain top," "his armor bright and his sword red with recent fight," took sick, went to bed, was unconscious most of the time for six days, when he heard the summons from his Lord: "Come up higher," and fell asleep.

"Asleep in Jesus! Far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep."

"Servant of God, well done! Rest from thy loved employ,
The battle fought, the vict'ry won; enter thy Master's joy.
The voice at midnight came; He started up to hear;
A mortal arrow pierced his frame,---He fell---but felt no fear.
His sword was in his hand, still warm with recent fight,
Ready that moment, at command, through rock and shell to smite."
W. S. WOODARD.

MRS. R. J. NELSON.

Mrs. R. J. Nelson, nee Berry, was born in Virginia, in 1852, and was married to R. J. Nelson in 1871.

Bro. Nelson joined the Kentucky Conference in 1879, hence she was the wife of an itinerant preacher 20 years. She was a true helpmeet to her husband, and cheerfully and uncomplainingly endured the hardships incident to this delicate, responsible and useful relation to the church and the world. Her departure to the better world, which occurred in July, in Cass county, was most triumphant and glorious. The Lord vouchsafed to her visions of her bright reward, and she went sweeping through the gates into the celestial city.

In the bright eternal city
Death can never, never come;
In His own time He will call us,
From our rest to home, sweet home.

(THE NEW STORE.)

THE PRICE OF A SUIT

Of Clothes and Overcoats is not always the true expression of its worth. It is equally true that a really good suit and overcoat cannot be sold for less than a certain sum. If you pay less you get less, and when you get down to a certain point what you get is worth nothing and your money might as well be thrown away.

Suits and Overcoats being made by ROGER PEET and other HIGH GRADE makes, which our store only keeps, the price range is adapted to every quality as to cloth and trimming; also good workmanship included. In buying these garments you get STERLING VALUE for your money, and the price is held down just as low as a good suit and overcoat can be made for. If you seek to save a few dollars by cheaper garments you get worthless ones, and ALL is wasted. We want you to come and look at our Suits and Overcoats, try them on and then compare them with other ready-to-wear garments, and also with the made-to-measure suits and overcoats. Our prices range from $8.00 to $35.00. Your money back if you are dissatisfied.

For our BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S department we say the same—come and look through before buying.

Our FURNISHING GOODS department has only the newest things of interest to men. In our HAT department you will only find the latest styles, shapes and shades—$2.50 and $3.00.

NOW ON SALE.

Many will be gratified to know that Dr. Alexander's new book, "THE SON OF MAN: Studies in His Life and Teachings," is on the tables in our sales department. We have already given Dr. Tigert's appreciation of this book, which we make no doubt is a true index of the estimate that will be put upon it by all its readers; and we have as little doubt that it will be very widely read. We have issued no book with more confidence in its merits or larger hope for its usefulness. Its publication is well timed as all of our Sunday School studies next year are in the life and teachings of our Lord. The price of the book, pp. 380, is $1.00
